

Praying For Your Husband

Lord, I thank you right now for my husband, _____. I pray You would be with him today. Protect him and keep him safe from harm. Protect him from any kind of accident, sickness, or any other sort of destruction the evil one may have planned. I pray _____ would fear no evil as You are always with him, guiding him and directing him to a straight path. (Ps 23:4) Give him discernment so as not to take any unnecessary risks or walk into a place of danger. Keep him from the enemy who is out to kill, steal, and destroy. (John 10:10) May all plans be thwarted and canceled by whoever may wish to harm him. God, I ask for You to be his refuge and his strength, and ever-present help in trouble. (Ps 46:1) Even though _____ may be pressed on every side, show him he is not crushed. I pray he would not have a heart of despair and know that You will never abandon him in times of trouble. (2 Cor. 4:8-9) Thank you that You are always watching over us.

Help my husband, _____, to lead me (and our family) in a direction that would be pleasing to You. Let him hear Your voice and be able to discern Your will for all of us. (Jer. 33:3) I know it is easy to get distracted with all of the responsibilities that go with being a husband, father, and provider. Show him how to juggle each responsibility with grace and wisdom knowing that only You alone can lead him properly. I pray You would be his example as You are his Shepherd; leading him beside still waters. I ask for his soul to be refreshed. I pray goodness and mercy would follow him all the days of his life, and he would dwell in Your house forever. (Ps 23)

I give my husband's job to you. I know that he may not like everything about it, but I pray he would not be weary in doing good. (Gal 6:9) I ask that _____ would be tenacious and not give up. Bless everything he puts his hands on; may he reap a harvest in due season. (Gal. 6:9) I pray nothing would be devoured or stolen from us. I give You everything we own. I commit it to You and trust You will take care of us. (Ps 37:4-5) May _____ always give careful and close attention to his work, but not be out of balance where he is working too much. Help him not to be overbearing, short-tempered, or greedy. I also pray he would not have a propensity towards laziness. Instill in him a desire to be hard working, diligent, and responsible with everything he has been given to do. (Eccles. 9:10) Thank you, God, for being our provider.

Heavenly Father, I know I cannot protect my husband from everything. I do, however, pray for You to be there with him as he goes through his trials. Help me to love, support, and pray for him daily. Show me how to be a godly wife, and the kind of woman who is encouraging to him. In Jesus name, I pray.
Amen.
