

cell phone

Contract

I Understand:

- that having a cell phone is a privilege, not a right. It can be taken away at any time.
- I will be honest and forthcoming with my parents and not hide anything.
- that my cell phone use may be altered or taken away if my report card has a grade lower than a _____, or I engage in any inappropriate activity such as drugs, alcohol, or pornography.

My Financial Responsibilities:

- I will pay for a new phone, charger, screen protector, or case if I break or lose the one I have.
- I will not go over our plan's monthly minutes or text message limits. If so, I will pay for the overages.
- I will pay for any apps or games that are downloaded, only after permission is given.

Texting and Photo Responsibilities:

- I will not text and drive EVER.
- I will not participate in cyberbullying or take/send embarrassing pictures to others.
- I will not delete any messages or photos.
- I will not ask for or send photos of my private body parts to anyone.

Other General Rules:

- I will gladly give all passwords and login information to my parents for the phone and apps.
- I will willingly put the phone in the _____ every night by ____pm on school nights, and ____pm on the weekends. It will never be in my room overnight. I will not be reminded of this.
- I will not use my phone at the dinner table, while doing homework, family gatherings, or church.
- I will obey any rules my school has regarding cell phones, such as turning them off during class.
- I will alert my parents if I receive suspicious phone calls, text messages, or files from others.
- I will immediately answer any calls or texts from my parents.
- I will never give my personal information to anyone without permission (name, address, phone).
- I will have a good attitude if asked to put my phone away.
